

Job Title: Physician Assistant/ Nurse Practitioner - PRNSupervisor's Title: Program ManagerClearance: FacilityContract: CSOSA Medical ServicesDate: September 2015FLSA: Non-ExemptSCA: YesLocation: Washington, DC

RESPONSIBILITIES

The Physician Assistant or Nurse Practitioner – PRN shall provide medical services at the Court Services and Offender Supervision Agency, Re-entry and Sanctions Center, a residential facility that provides intensive assessments and reintegration programming for high-risk offenders and defendants with extensive substance abuse histories who are under the supervision of the Government. The Physician Assistant or Nurse Practitioner shall work under the supervision of a Physician to provide clinical services, to include but not limited to the full range of medical services listed below:

- Conducting baseline physicals
- Gynecological examinations
- Testicular examinations
- Colorectal examinations
- Tuberculin Testing
- Drawing blood
- Obtaining urine specimens
- Makes referrals for diets and or additional laboratory/radiology services
- Annotate resident records to reflect services provided, diagnosis, lab/radiology results and other pertinent medical data

The Physician Assistant/ Nurse Practitioner shall perform his or her duties in accordance with established medical practices and procedures as well as the government's policy as it relates to medical care for Re-Entry and Sanctions Center Residents.

Qualifications:

- Current Physician's Assistant license or current nurse practitioner's license OR a certification by the American Nurse Association as a Nurse Practitioner
- Certification from the American Society of Addiction Medicine (ASAM) OR a minimum of seven (7) years' experience treating individuals with substance abuse problems.
- At least 5 calendar years of verifiable experience as a licensed Physician Assistant OR at least 5 calendar years of verifiable experience as board certified and licensed Nurse Practitioner.
- A minimum of 3 years' of verifiable work experience as a board certified and licensed Nurse Practitioner or Physician Assistant that worked in either a residential treatment, community corrections, re-entry, or correctional facility, public health clinic, or federally qualified health center, correctional facility, public health clinic, or federally qualified health center.

Abilities Required:

- Excellent verbal and written communication skills.
- Able to maintain a professional demeanor and interface with high level medical providers, clients and Altos management and employees.
- Superb customer service.
- Detail-oriented and organized.
- Reliable, dependable, and trustworthy, as well as able to maintain confidential information.
- Able to work designated schedule, as well as maintain attendance and punctuality.
- Able to stand for extended periods of time

EEO Employer/Protected Veteran/Disabled

---